

Other Mentoring Schemes & Resources

➤ LINGOS

A network of learning and development professionals in the international development sector who have established a cross-organisation mentoring scheme. Have a look at <https://www.coachmentoring.co.uk/about-us/philanthropy.html>.

➤ 30%club

The 30% Club mentoring scheme, developed with the support of EY and now delivered by Women Ahead, offers cross-company, cross-sector mentoring to women at every layer of the career pyramid. It aims to complement other schemes in the marketplace, or within individual organisations, where cross-company mentoring is usually only available to very senior women.

➤ Fabian Women Mentoring

This is a mentoring scheme for woman looking to develop or further a career in politics or public life.

➤ 50ft Women

50ft Women is a not-for-profit cross-industry mentoring programme for young women in the workplace. 50ft Women facilitate thoughtful, supportive and productive mentoring relationships between inspirational senior professionals and talented young women in their first years of work.

➤ National Alliance of Women's Organisations

People who are happy to be a mentor/buddy for newcomers to CSW to inform Amy, info@nawo.org.uk

➤ Women mentoring in international development

WOMID links women doing development facing PhDs and post-docs with women working in the development field outside of academia through a global voluntary mentoring scheme.